DAVID LIPSCOMB COLLEGE

We remember what happened to us here from September of 1967 through September of 1968 as a whirling kaleidoscope of isolated events which somehow merge and blur as we try to pinpoint them. We remember that we studied in the library and talked in the library and listened in class and slept in class. We ate lunch and sat on the wall and watched the clock and drank a coke. There was a date Friday night and TV Saturday night and studying late Sunday night. We went to church and went to class and we went to chapel. We listened to WMAK or WKDA or WSIX F.M. and typed and thought and figured and complained and cried and laughed and phoned and loved. We did a the million things in a million ways. But each of the million ultimately fell into one of three categories, whose total encompasses all activity of any kind at Lipscomb. For everything we did was either to examine and improve our relationship with God, or to gain academic knowledge, or to confront and make contact with each other. The proportionate interests and effort which any one person put into any one of these three depended largely on which person he was and what his interests and goals were. But all of us at one time or another engaged to some degree in all of these areas of Lipscomb activity. This book purports to represent to you that engagement.

Nashville, Tennessee

"We went to chapel" ... It is custom — appreciated more in the end than at present.

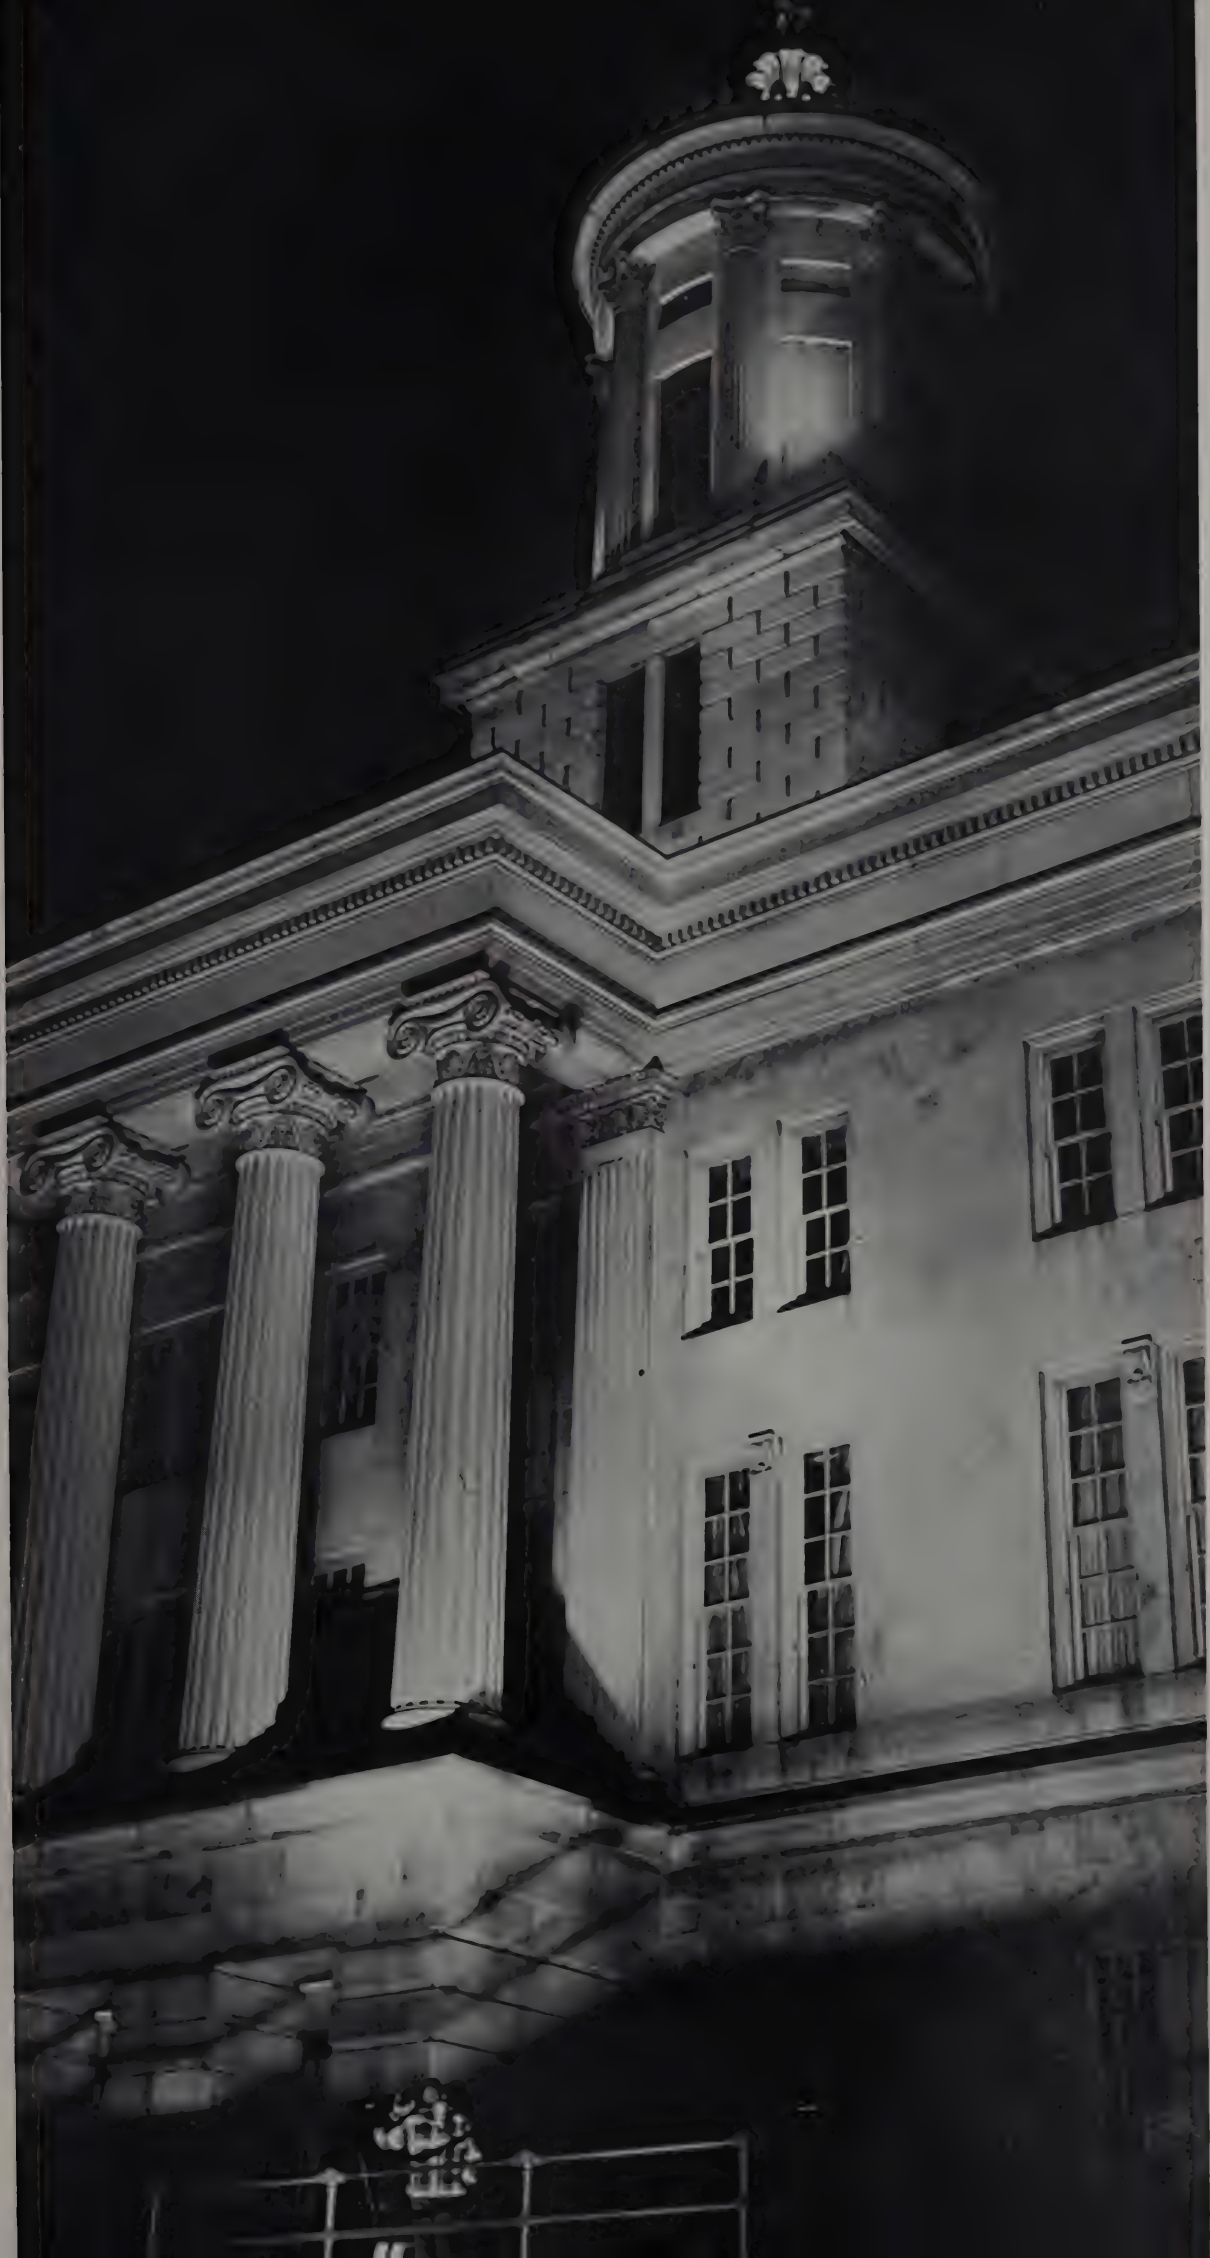

"We went to class" ... It is faith — in God and man made stronger by action.

"We met special people" ... It is Love—stronger than any other in this world.

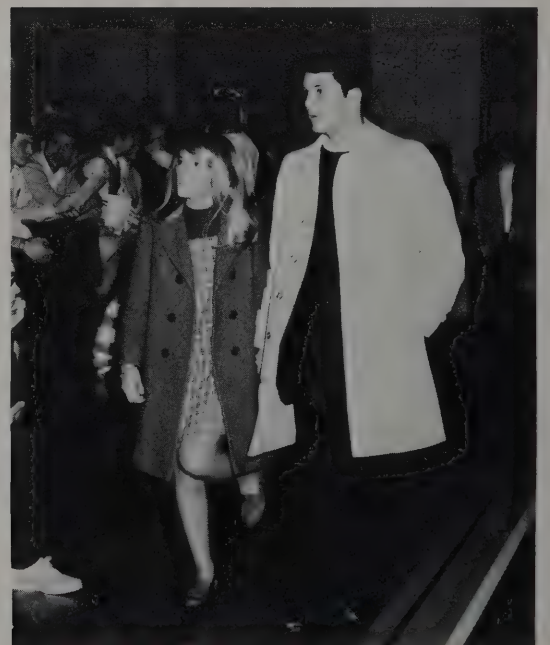

“We became involved” . . . It is spirit—caused by a bond of unity.

Rarely brought into public attention, the Board of Directors of David Lipscomb College are men to whom all concerned with Lipscomb are indebted. These individuals, who have proven themselves as capable leaders in the professional and business worlds, serve the school without pay in a policy-making capacity. Through the Board Lipscomb continues to make advancements in the educational world.

IN MEMORIAM

1896-1967

Harry R. Leathers served Lipscomb with distinction for more than thirty years, twenty-five of these as Chairman of the Board of Directors. In leading Lipscomb through the thrilling years of growth and expansion from a small junior college to a fully accredited senior college, he demonstrated a rare quality of courage, wisdom, and dedication to the cause of Christian education. The name of Harry R. Leathers will be forever engraved in the hearts of those who believe in the value of Christian education.

STAFF

SUPERINTENDENT OF BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS
Arnold Underwood is one of the most familiar and popular figures on campus. His maintenance staff, Jim Langley, C. J.

Poston, and Billy Woody perform those tasks necessary to keep the operation going efficiently.

The unsung heroes in bitter winter weather are the staff of the stream plant. Claude Hayes and his co-workers, Bill Polk and James Estes, provide the heat.

Officers Corbin and Jones remind us of societies' necessary restrictions.

Hosts of the day students' home-away-from-home and proprietors of the local restaurant, D. M. Hassey and his staff are to be found in the student center.

The staff group which comes into contact with students most frequently is the cafeteria division. Gilliam Traugh-ber and his assistants provide the daily bread.

FEATURES

MISS LIPSCOMB

Miss Lipscomb for 1968 is the personification of Christian virtue. To all she displays beauty, friendliness, and Christianity. As a campus beauty finalist, captain of the cheerleaders, football queen, and Civinette officer, Jane Buchi Connelly has merited Miss Lipscomb, 1968.

BACHELOR OF UGLINESS

1968's Bachelor of Ugliness is a combination of athletic prowess, academic success, and Christian humility. A four-year letterman, he served as captain of the basketball team in his senior year. A leader in the accounting department, he is a member of Alpha Kappa Psi and is listed in Who's Who as is his wife. Bill Connelly, husband in Lipscomb's most outstanding couple, is Bachelor of Ugliness.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming at Lipscomb symbolizes a variety of meetings to different groups. To the alumni it is the joy of renewing old friendships and the sadness of viewing a change in the campus. To club members it is exhibits with the accompanying all night vigil; to the team it is the game by which they are judged; to the average student it is an afternoon game with crowded bleachers; to the undergraduate members of the homecoming processional, it is an opportunity to dress-up for an audience; but to the queen and the seniors around her, homecoming is the culmination of all that has made Lipscomb theirs.

Terry Beaty, Pam Brickell, and Gaius Overton, in Lipscomb's winter production of "David and Lisa," find the world filled with problems.

Mary Evins, Lisa, and Don Creech, the teacher, in "David and Lisa," discuss some of the problems of youth in an out-of-focus world.

FESTIVAL OF HEARTS

Throughout Man's history he has been appreciative of the charms of womanhood and has continually attempted to select the most beautiful women for recognition. Traditionally the student body chooses twelve coeds as the most representative of its concept of beauty. This year's Festival of Hearts was a display of Lipscomb talent and natural beauty: Highlights of Lipscomb Musicals provided memories and entertainment; Carolyn Colley and Bob Holmes guided the activities smoothly; Dean Craig questioned and commented in his patented style; and six Lipscomb women became Campus Beauties, 1968.

Sheryll Andrews, Chip Haslam, and Bernadine Foriest provided the entertainment for the "Festival of Hearts."

FOOTBALL ROYALTY

The social event of the intramural football season was the selection of the Football Queen. Since gridiron competition had returned to a class basis, two representatives from each of the lower classes appeared in the court. Six girls from the graduating classes were presented to the student body and Jane Buchi became Football Queen. The court arrived on the field via convertibles and were escorted by class officers. Queen Buchi was escorted by Student Body President Jim Turner and crowned by Director of Student Affairs Thomas Cook to close the ceremonies.

WHO'S WHO

Elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities are those students who are deemed superior in the qualities of leadership and scholarship. Nominees are selected by a student-faculty committee on the basis of grade point average, exhibition of leadership ability in educational and extracurricular activities, and promise of a successful future in all endeavors.

SPORTS

INTRAMURALS

The intramural program at David Lipscomb is one of the outstanding features of the Physical Education Department. This program offers every student an opportunity to participate in competitive sports with others of the same skill and ability level. The students themselves are partially responsible for the success of intramurals at Lipscomb. Eugene Boyce, Frances Moore, and others of the Physical Education Department, give generously of their time and efforts to make this program possible.

BASKETBALL

Basketball went through revolutionary changes at Lipscomb this year as Ken Dugan took over coaching duties at mid-season and carried the Bisons to a 9-14 mark. However, Bison fans will not soon forget some memorable victories in McQuiddy. After whipping Tennessee Temple 100-70 in the opener the Keeping school spirit high during those disappointing moments of defeat is an arduous task. Lipscomb cheerleaders carried the school through the change over in coaches, the sorrow of defeat, and the joy of victory. These cheerleaders were leaders in every phase of campus life and held the respect of the student body. Captain Jane Buchi and her squad represented the school well.

Jim Beller came out from halftime to score 23 points, as the Lynx were downed 82-70. In the second game at Memphis, senior captain Bill Connelly played the finest game of his career helping to wipe Southwestern again, 70-55. Rounding out the roster were seniors Richard Jackson and Stacy Myers and Connelly; juniors Beller, Smith, and Owen Sweatt; sophs Charlie Neal, Eddie Montgomery, Bill Burton, and Billy Williams.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Led by Rick Clark, Larry Gupton, and Charlie Neal, the Junior Varsity Basketball squad played to a 7-3 mark, with impressive wins over OVC and local foes. The top win of the season came when the Bisons topped Middle Tennessee 57-54 in McQuiddy. The JV's 91-75 win over Belmont also pleased the Bison fans. Bill Burton and Melvin Haynes rounded out the JV starting line-up while Coach Mike Hartness also played Arnold Simpson, Eddie Montgomery, Billy Williams, Bill Bryan, Warren Buck, Mark Massey, and Presley Ramsey.

TRACK

With eight qualifiers for the National Meet, Coach Bailey Heflin hailed 1968 as Lipscomb's finest season in track. The squad registered a 4-1 mark with wins over Morehouse, Union, Tennessee Tech, and Austin Peay. In addition, the Bisons took first in both indoor and outdoor TIAC meets.

Buddy Martin proved to be the teams highest scorer running consistently in six races per meet. Frosh Lewis Allen ranked fifth in the nation in the 220, while James Teage broke the pole vault record.

CROSS COUNTRY

Joey Haines continued his prowess with the javelin, and Ronnie Cope continued a fast pace in the distance runs. Ken Durham, Terry Irwin, George Henry, and Terry Hudgins, Gary Branum, Mo Brunelle and Linol Hernandez round out the 1968 squad.

Andy Russell set school records in the mile and two mile, won the SEC Invitational distance runs, competed for the olympic trials, and was a three event champion in the TIAC.

GYMNASTICS

Nashvillians have come to expect a superior gymnastics team at Lipscomb, and they were not disappointed in the 1967-68 season. Led by three-time All-American Ted Immediato, the squad compiled another winning record highlighted by the defeat of nationally-ranked Eastern Michigan. Dave Fennessey, Ted Rose, Ray Adams, Randy Wilson, and Robin Hargis joined with other returnees and freshmen for a productive year.

For the first time in the history of Lipscomb, a spring sport squad received national ranking when the baseball team placed fifth in the Collegiate Baseball Poll. Under Ken Dugan, the Bisons played to an 18-11 record; rain washed out eleven additional games.

The big victory of the season came on April 17, when the Bisons defeated Memphis State, 10-6. Dennis Green got the victory while Farrell Owens and Randy Marshall provided the hitting power. Other wins were scored over Western Kentucky, Indiana State, Austin Peay, Valdosta State and Belmont.

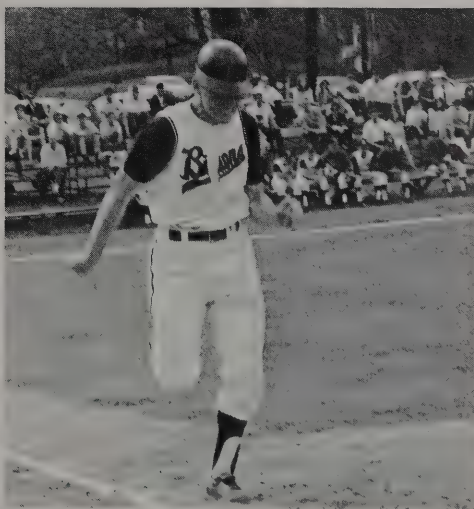

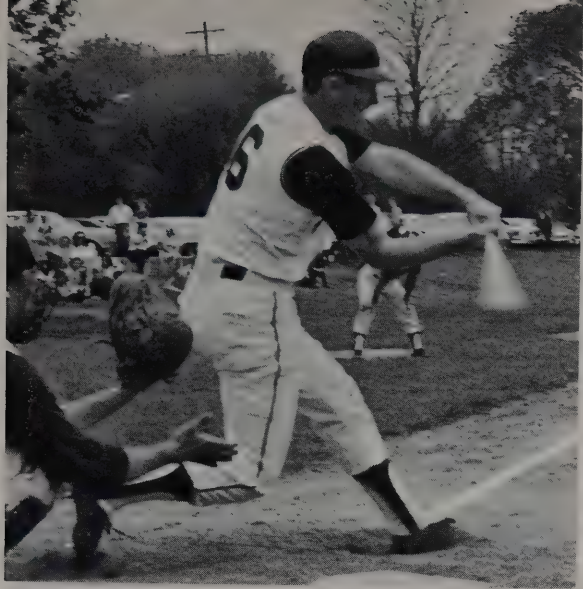

All-American Wayne Rankhorn led Lipscomb in hitting with a .406 average, 43 hits, 6 homers, and 35 RBI's. Dave Evans was the only other above .330 at .365. Farrell Owens was the leading base stealer with 14. As a team the Bisons hit .282.

Freshman Ronnie Albright recorded five wins this season with the ERA of 1.77. Randy Morris, Dennis Green, and Mark Massey picked up the other 13 victories.

BASEBALL

The opening of school brought changes to the gridiron at Lipscomb. The season saw the return of interclass competition after five of interclub games. The style also returned to eleven man football after six man teams failed. Under the direction of coach Tony Adcock, stars such as freshmen Burton Elrod and Glenn Speis, sophomores Billy Drewery and Steve Peden, and seniors Bob Morris and Cosby Carmichael, merged into the limelight.

The year's finale, played in fifteen degree weather, saw the seniors defeat the freshmen 18-7, thereby capturing the championship. The freshmen took second place followed closely by the sophomores and juniors.

FOOTBALL

TENNIS

Lipscomb's tennis squad far exceeded all pre-season predictions, finishing the year with an 11-7 record. Especially impressive were two victories over Austin Peay of the OVC. David Mayo handled the number one spot facing many of the OVC's toughest players and registered a 10-6 mark. Senior Joe Williams will be the only loss for next year as Coach Duane Slaughter welcomes back Herb Alsup, Tom Haddock, Gary Jordan, Bill Dean, and Glen Nichols.

Dean hits powerful forehand volley.

GOLF

Bill Castle, Bison's number one player, competed in the NAIA National Match as he finished the season as the top golfer in District 2. In his first year as coach, Dr. Ralph Samples led his rebuilding team to a 9-9 record, sweeping the last three matches. Freshmen John Brewer and Dick Morris, sophomores Russ Fineran and Lynn Cockerham, plus senior Donnie Dowlen joined with Castle to win matches over all local foes including Belmont, Fisk, and Columbia State.

STUDENT LIFE

RELIGION

Religion has always been the foundation of life at Lipscomb with daily Bible classes and chapel services. Yet the climate of Christianity has reached new peaks during this school year. Dynamic alumnus Bill Banowsky initiated this drive during the fall meeting. Dedicated young people throughout the nation attended the well-planned Mission Workshop. But, primarily, students became aware of a need to come closer to their Father.

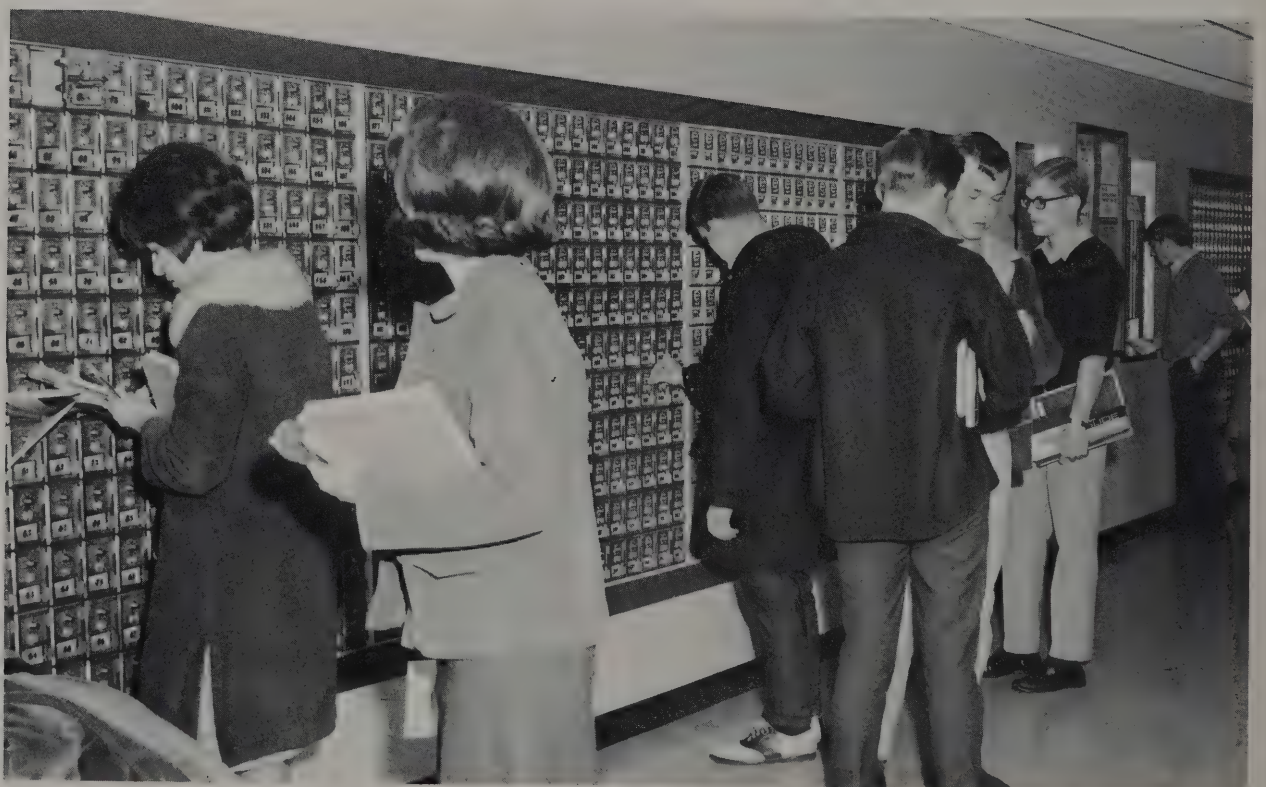

Summer quarter is the season of greenery, tennis, air conditioning, and outdoor gatherings. With a decreased enrollment summer students feel a special nearness to each other. Planned activities range from the juvenile fun of the mixer to the traditional summer watermelon feast. Summer quarter at Lipscomb provides a host of pleasurable memories.

SUMMER

ROUTINE

Life can become a series of repeated events. The morning shave or cosmetic session, the rush to class, the countless futile trips to the mailbox, and the searching hours in the student center all become boring and routine at times. Yet the graduate looks back on these little things with an unfilled longing.

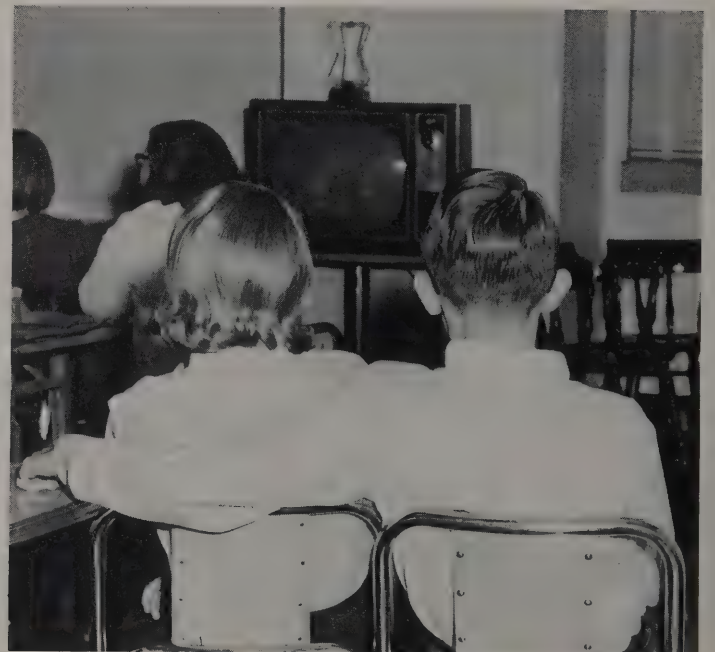

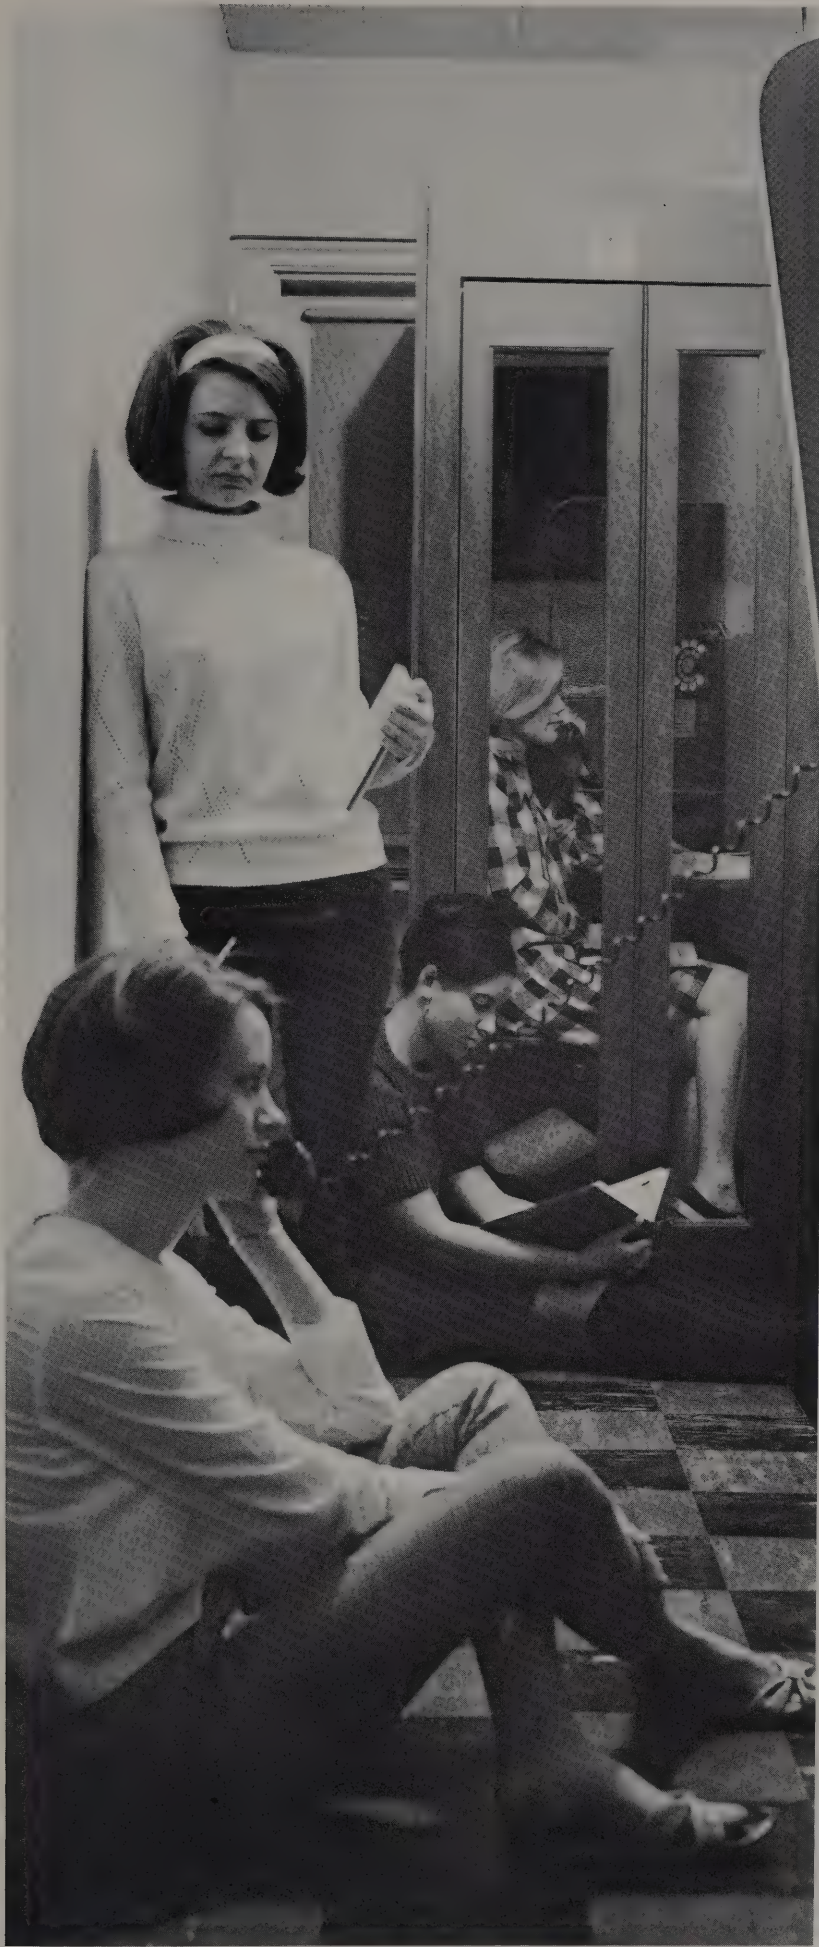

Love is the only thing which gives meaning to life. It is the deepest and greatest reason for living. Sharing the little things in life can make two hearts become one. A late-night phone call, television in the student center, sharing a study load or a warm fire on a cold winter's night can help in the understanding of the word love.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Ankle-length gowns, tuxedos, candlelight and many hours of work and planning bring to Lipscomb each quarter that one night of formality and sophistication when the boys act more like men, and the girls are transformed into individual islands of grandeur. The three banquets during the 1967-68 school year were held at the Barn Dinner Theatre, featuring "Barefoot in the Park," The Andrew Jackson Hotel, featuring Buddy and Bernie Arnold, and Morrison's Cafeteria, featuring the Lonesome Rhodes.

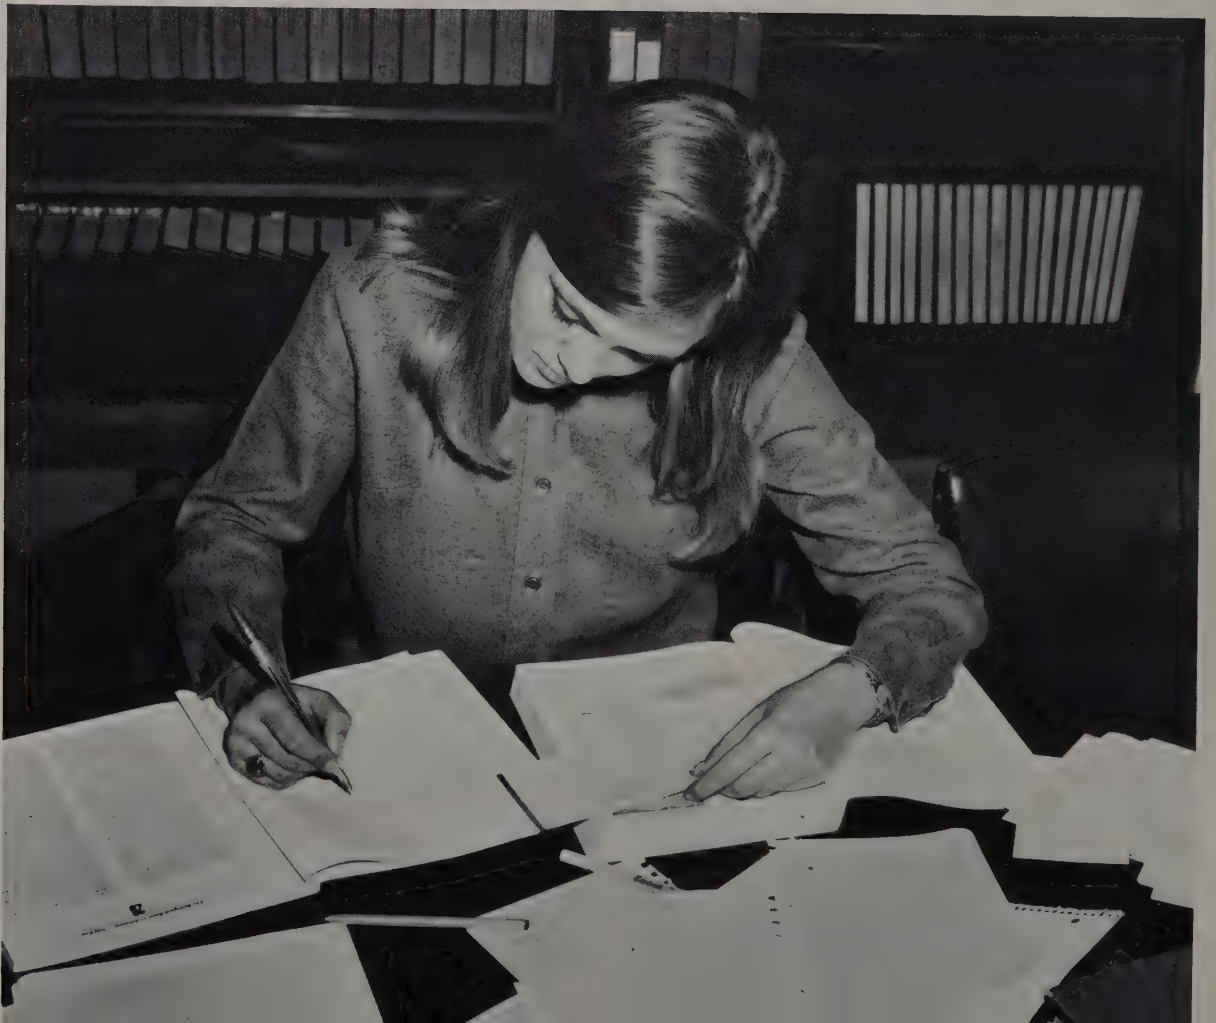

Life is full of unique experiences at Lipscomb, one of which is dating. Contrary to popular opinion, in every season a young man's thoughts turn to love.

STUDY

Although often forgotten or overlooked, classes and studies are the primary reason for having a college. Classes may be lively and interesting or drag on endlessly. The ritual of reading or research attacks each student, regardless of his aversion to study, if he plans to maintain a lengthy sojourn on campus.

DAY STUDENTS

There are three breeds of non-boarding students. The day student lives in the comforts of parental housekeeping and food services. The married students share the experiences of studying, financial worries, homemaking, and companionship. But the off-campus resident lives in a cluttered world of freedom and self-preservation. The library and student center serve as second homes for the day student.

Winter is the season of short days and long nights, the lengthy Christmas season, basketball and gymnastics, Homecoming, and many of the traditional Lipscomb events. Occasionally, the most beautiful and most frustrating of the weather's calling cards presents scenes such as appear on these pages.

WINTER

Frustration, pensiveness, anxiety, pep, love, antagonism, reverence, etc. — these are moods which each person experiences almost daily. An astute reader of faces can discover these emotions about him whenever he feels so inclined. These moods help mold the complete person.

SOCIAL LIFE

Does the sophisticated high school senior revert to childishness in a matter of weeks? The mixer suggests a loud affirmation. Social life ranges from the formality of banquets to the painful pleasure of a skating party. The faculty-student relationship enriches college life with visits to professors' homes. Social life involves the mutual giving of one's self to others.

For a full year four student body officers tried to find a sequel to the great Letterman shows which combined good taste and reasonable prices. The answer came May 18 with the presentation of Bobby Goldsboro and Ray Walker in concert. Walker, a sensational performer, and Goldsboro, the leading record seller of early 1968, made the wait worthwhile.

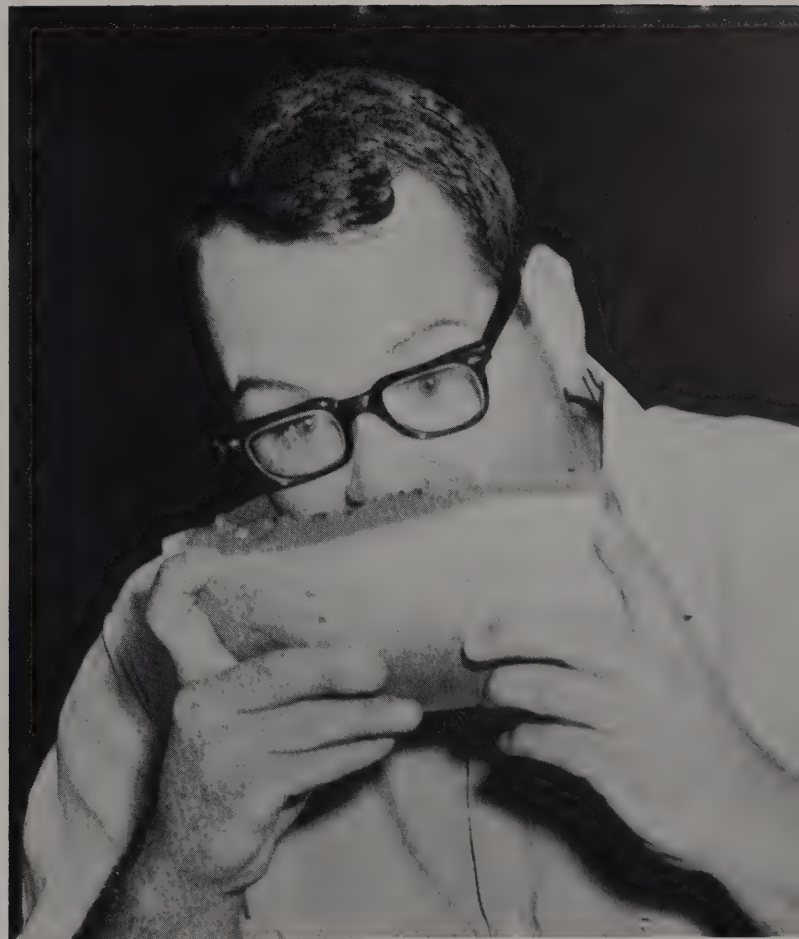

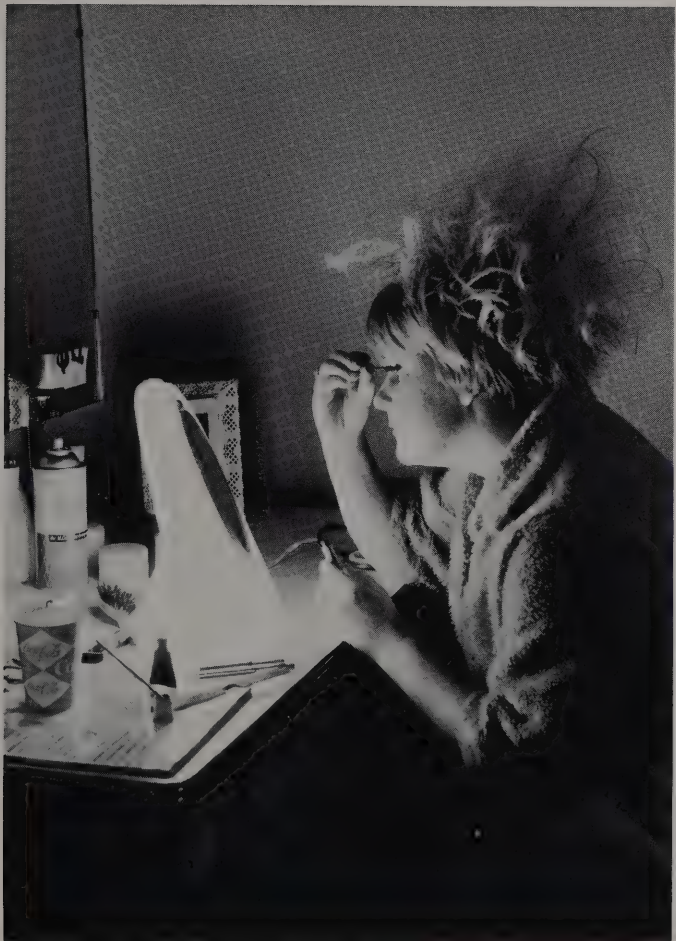

Each person's concept of life at Lipscomb is different. The pictures on the next four pages depict various phases of the Lipscomb atmosphere. How they affect each person personally reflects his view of student life.

STUDENTS

PRESIDENT'S STUDENT COUNCIL

The President's Student Council is composed of the school's academic and social leaders. These people have an opportunity to ask questions, express opinions, and learn the basis for administrative policies. After an informative session, Mrs. Pullias graciously serves as hostess for the Council at the traditional reception.

A CAPPELLA

The leading example of Lipscomb culture is the A Cappella chorus. These men and women, in tuxedos and evening gowns, thrilled audiences throughout Tennessee and the Central South and Southwest with their powerful performances. Director Charles Nelson concluded a remarkable Lipscomb tenure by conducting a combined chorus and orchestra composed of Lipscomb students and members of the Nashville Symphony.

D.L.C. BAND

The David Lipscomb College Band may be found in concert, building spirit on the court and in the stands at basketball games, or furnishing accompaniment for collegiate dramatic productions. Director Burley Bowman led his musicians on a tour of the South. The band's performance during the Homecoming ceremonies will long be remembered.

Debaters Kenny Barfield, Dr. Carroll Ellis, Head Coach, Wayne McMahan, Sidney Fulford, Dr. Marlin Connelly, Assistant Coach, and Larry Pederson.

DEBATE SQUAD

One of Lipscomb's most successful teams for the year was not athletic. The debate squad, composed of veterans, compiled an amazing win record and carried away trophies from the nation's major tournaments. The high point of the season was a round with the champions of Great Britain in chapel and on area television. This climaxed a rewarding season.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

Recipients of boundless glory upon election and infinite complaints in office, Lipscomb's student body officers serve for two quarter terms beginning in the summer and the winter. Their duties range from the ultimate selection to the Student Life Committee to selling tickets to a skating party. Carol Willis and Jim Turner organized and initiated a new Greek club system. Carolyn Colley and Charlie Neal brought top entertainment to campus. All four officers worked especially well together because of close friendships.

JUNE, John Parker, Gail Henry

1968 GRADUATION

B. C. Goodpasture, Speaker for the December graduation, presents Bill Steensland with the Goodpasture Bible.

Gov. Buford Ellington was the speaker for the June graduation ceremonies.

Dr. Louis Smith, Academic Vice-President and Dean of Berea College, was the speaker for August graduates.

JUNIORS

President — Owen Sweatt
Vice-President — Billy Long
Secretary — Susan Coleman
Treasurer — Tommy Daniel

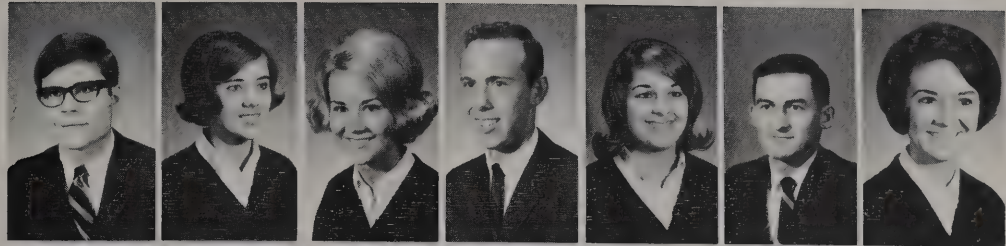

Two junior girls, Peggy Palmer and Nancy Hardison, planned the year's top social event—the Barn Dinner Theatre Banquet. Several junior couples are seen here enjoying the pre-meal entertainment.

The freshmen began pulling together at the mixer and continued a combined effort. Under the leadership of President Dan Harrell, Vice-President Mike McDonald, Secretary Rebecca Hood, and Treasurer Brenda Laney, this class became a closely-knit unit. A party for orphans and a class picnic were fruits of united endeavors.
